The aim of the game in general is to rotate the blocks. Multicolored candy until you manage to match three or more The point at which they are lost and those around them will fall into their new position. The ultimate goal of each game is not to clear all the candies - you should be free of wild animals behind the candies, when you unleash them all, then you will pass the level and go to the next level, Candy Crush Friends Saga begins slowly and easily with many in-game tips and tricks to show you what you intend to do. With very little effort, you will pass the start level quickly and get the hang of the game. What makes Candy Crush Friends Saga different is the level of effort being introduced into the game outside of real gameplay. It's a calidoscope of animation, character, color and texture, and it's fascinating. The gameplay of Candy Crush Friends Saga is amplified by special moves that allow you to match many candy and gifts and bonuses (in the game) that give you stickers, for example, or allow you to dress up the little characters that come with you throughout the game. There are also a variety of in-app purchases that are more appealing as the game progresses and gets harder. Where can you run this application, Candy Crush Friends Saga for phones running Android 4.4 and above? Also available for other platforms, including online and iPhone, is there a better choice? It's hard to talk about a better choice for the game, because most options are personal, but in this case we have to refuse. But they don't have a particularly stylistic approach as Candy Crush Friends Saga, and if that's what you want, you'll need to get here. It is worth remembering that most, if not all King games, have similar style, so if you like, you may enjoy other games from developers such as Bubble Witch Saga 2.Candy Crush Friends Saga is a basic - but amazingly packed - tile matching game. You're in with a little dopamine hit every time you clear the puzzle. Graphics and style are obvious advantages, but it is important to remember that under them it is a fairly standard puzzle. Should you download it? No, no one wants this game. Of course, it looks good, but without substance - it's like fancy frost on an average cake, really giving your brain cells more stretch with puzzle games like classic mahjong. Candy Crush Saga: More Tips. Candy Crush Saga is one of the most addictive games ever made for iPhone and iPad, and if you are sucked into candy crush just as we have, you undoubtedly find yourself stuck at some point in the hundreds of levels having played through in Candy Crush with the addition of Dreamworld and a new level, we think it's time to advise, advice and ten more cheats to deal with addiction. Your Candy Crush! In addition to the daily wheel, there are many ways to get your own free booster in the Candy Crush app, which is why it's a good idea to log in to your Facebook account from your computer and play every time for a while. Not only do you get boosters more often for some reason, it seems quite easy in the Facebook version of Candy Crush, this is especially useful if you're stuck to a certain level. 2. Buying boosters is much cheaper through Facebook on iPhone and iPad, general booster costs about $2 on Facebook. A typical booster is 3-5 gold bars through Facebook, you can buy 5 gold bars for $1. You may find that you will save a lot of cash purchased through Facebook, of course they do not transfer to the mobile app. But if you don't mind playing on the computer now and again, it's a cheaper way to play. 3. Some levels help you avoid bombs altogether, if you carefully watch for the candy machine that emits the bomb. For example, switch the yep off under these machines, but don't wash it off if you can help. Of course, there are occasions where there may be jelly that you have to remove, but if there is no clear steer of the explosive bearing machine and you will find those levels will be much less chaotic. 4.Use the best move over jelly wash, sometimes it attracts a lot to swap beads to wash the jelly you need to remove. This goes along with the gaming strategy that says that clearing candies from the bottom often leads to more combos. 5.Don't lose striped candy when licorice is involved, licorice pieces usually stop dead striped candy in its tracks. The use of striped candy is a fruitless effort, especially if the licorice piece is located next to it. If possible, get rid of the licorice pieces in that row before blasting the bar 6.Be sure to keep your candy rotation every day. Now let you rotate every day to help you collect boosters. You can accumulate these boosters over time to make sure you collect them. You can find daily booster wheels on the main map menu underneath where you see your live number. 7. Odus balanced sweets change in Dreamworld, if you've ever played in Dreamworld, you already know that you'll have to watch odus balanced candy on the moon. However, one thing that a lot of people don't notice is that these sweets change every time you get a bonus. In other words, when Odus washes some candy all colors for you, the candy balances him to change. 8.Move game suggestions to you usually suck if you take a moment to make a move, candy crush will assume you're stuck. Normally, the recommended games will move the game to you, not only badly, they are an awesome option. Instead of spending extra time, look around the board for something better. You can easily test this theory by waiting for the second to make any move, you will see movements that show that are not good. 9. Combining coconut wheels and wrapped coconut candy wheels only shows the ingredient level and one of the only sponsors you can't make using the combination of candy. However, combining them with candy wrappers allows you to easily penetrate through frost and other types of obstacles, depending on the direction the coconut wheels are facing, combined with a packed ball, creating an entire row of puke, explosive packages. You can see why this is a great way to penetrate a tough block without losing movement. 10. Life iPhone and iPad don't sync, just as you can open many Facebook tabs or change system time to get more life, you can also switch between your iPhone and iPad. Basically spend your entire life on one device and then just get another one. Since it times out the system on that particular device and it's not a cloud service that tells you that you've just played on another device, you can switch back and forth for as long as you want. In case you missed them, we have two great guides to help you travel through Candy Crush, so don't forget to check those things too! Candy Crush Saga Tips And Cheats Your Tips and Cheats? While there are some ways to cheat the system in Candy Crush, it's important to note that services and programs that promise to hack your Candy Crush game or give life free, gold boosters or anything else are often scams. Don't download anything or sign up for any service you don't trust, even if it promises to give you a free life or allow you to skip candy crush levels, even if one of these services works, King can ban your account if it is discovered and you will lose all your hard work Natalya Danko/EyeEm/Getty Candy Crush Saga has been punished hard as you move higher and higher level and buying a booster will be hugely costly. If you want to make the most of your life or get a free life in curls, we've pulled out tips and tricks. The best Candy Crush comes together to help you increase your score. Start crushing your pastry at the bottom. When you create a race near the bottom of the level, you can create a chain reaction to destroy more parts and earn many points. Creating a competition at the top is unlikely to have this effect. Do not follow blind instructions. If you don't move for a moment, the game will look for a match and then show you by making candies vibrate. But don't use these matches automatically. Many times you will be able to find a better match yourself. Try to think ahead when possible. If you just make every race you see without thinking, you will fail on a more difficult level. See how to drop candy and think about the movements you can make to create situations where you can make colored bombs or get pieces in place to clear jelly or other threats. Pair three candy together to wash those canes only. But matching four or five will create special candy, these special candies are the key to hitting more difficult levels. Look for combos and use the best. Combos such as flick color bombs into a very powerful striped candy. If you can maneuver special candies together, they do much better together than they do alone. Use and make the correct striped candy. Striped candy can have horizontal or vertical strips. The direction you swipe your finger to create the candy matches the direction of the stripes and the candy will wash. Horizontal or vertical that matches the stripes Prioritize specific threats in each level. Don't just do any old races you can. If the level contains specific threats such as licorice or jelly, take care of them first. If you don't, you may move out before you can clear the level. If the level contains chocolate, go after it first. It's hard to match on the edges, so if you have threats like jelly on the edge of the board, try to clear them first. Since it is difficult to match on the edges, thanks should avoid moving the mixture to the edge. Discard or move the mixture into a column that you will be able to paste into the green arrow. Chocolate is a creeping menace that expands to take more time than squares every time you do a match anywhere on the board that is not clear chocolate. To wash the chocolate, pair with all four candies on top, bottom to the left or right side of the chocolate. Use special candy like color bombs if you like. Look for extra time candies. If you see candies with the +5 icon, try to include them in the matches, these are special time candies and they show in the time level. If you can use one of the races, you will get five extra seconds. You'll get boosters while you play and you can still pay for them. Save these powerful tools for difficult levels or you won't have the tools you need. New leveling, especially difficult levels. While the layout and target of the level are set to stone, each position of the candies is totally random. If you start a level and don't like the layout of the ball, yep, you can back away without losing a life if you don't have any movement. Start level again and you may have better positioning. Complete the level with the remaining extra moves for more points. If you are still moving left when you finish the fish, jelly or tad al-ed fish level, it will pop up and earn more points. The more moving, the more likely it is to cause a lot of extra points. Set forward dates on your mobile device to get a free life. If you have problems and lose all your life and you are playing on a mobile device, you can set the date on your device forward one day to get another five lives. Lifewire Candy Crush is a three-game matching game at Heart, which means you play by matching at least three similar candy sets to destroy them and earn points. It's very easy to pick up, but Candy Crush Saga throws a lot of special desserts into the ingredients, so it's important to get the basics down if you want to overcome a more difficult level. Aside from the basic concept of matching three balls, both match more than three balls in a specific combination, do something quite neat. Instead of destroying all the yep balls, they leave behind one of three types of ultra-powerful balls that can help. You leave some sticky situations. Striped candy is the easiest special candy to get. What to do: Clear all vertical or horizontal lines How to get: Pair four balls in horizontal or vertical lines. Directions: Create a match using striped candy. Candy wrap is good at getting rid of licorice, it's troublesome: destroy all eight candies around it. It does nothing: destroy every candy with a single color. How to get: Match five candies in horizontal or vertical lines To use: Swipe down on any color candy to destroy all the candy that matches that color. Keep an eye on how to create these patterns and you'll have a much easier time overcoming tough levels. One of the most important secrets to learning Candy Crush is to learn what each set does so you can maneuver your special candy in place and unleash big combos. Here are the best combos in Candy Crush and what they do: striped candy + candy wrap: instead of clearing a single vertical or horizontal line, or just clear the eight candy lines surrounding this combo, clear three lines, both horizontally and vertically. Striped Candy + Color Bomb: This second most powerful combo will transform every candy ball that matches the color of your striped candy as a new striped candy and they all activate at once. Color Bomb + Color Bomb: The most powerful combo in this game truly clears every single item in a level. These combos are not powerful, but you may find useful: color bombs + candy wrap: all jelly matches the color of candy wrapped, turned into candy wrapped and exploded at once. This is the weakest color bomb combo, but it is also more powerful than the color bomb itself. Candy Wrap + Candy Wrap: Destroy eight surrounding candy, then do it again after the new candy has settled in place. Striped Candy + Striped Candy: Wash everything both horizontally and vertically. Now that you know what candies and special combinations can do, let's take a look at making special candies. They are not hard to do, but they usually don't just fall into your lap. Look for four colors of candy separated by one candy ball of different colors. Maneuver the candy five of the original colors into place, whisk the fifth candy into place to weld the gaps and create a candy match, five candies can be either vertical or horizontal. This is the biggest race you can do, which is why it delivers such a powerful result. Striped candies are People will do it and they are still very useful. You can also control the properties of striped candy depending on how you create it, which makes it unique. Candies can be either horizontally or vertically. If you create a horizontal matching list, the match essay will be 200 if you create a matching item in a vertical line, the program automatically creates a If you have trouble remembering, think this way: the direction of the line will match the direction in which you swipe your finger to create a match. Look for two sets of candy of the same color next to each other, with one-third of the same color separated by a single candy with different colors. Maneuver the fourth candy of the original color into place, whisk the fourth candy into place to bridge the gap and create a four-ball candy race. Candy wrappers can be difficult to do, because you have to look for specific patterns. These candies are made by matching five candies like color bombs, but they must be in the formation of T or L, looking for four candies in the formation of T or L with a single candy with different colors interrupting the race. Whisk the fifth candy to the position to create both horizontal and vertical matching of three candies each at once. Candy Crush Saga lets you work with only five lives. That means that if you lose five times, you can buy an extra life to pay for life. Limited In a limited time, or even ask your friends for life. But if you don't want to pay and you've asked your friends, then the only option is to put the game down and wait for the time to pass. If you're playing on Android or iOS version of Candy Crush Saga, you can cheat a little and trick the game into thinking time has passed when it's not really. This involves changing the time on your phone, but you don't need to root, jailbreak or even install anything. The exact steps will vary slightly depending on the device you use to play the game, but the basic idea is that you need to set the time forward within a day. Here's how to get a free life in Candy Crush Saga: Play Candy Crush and Run Out of Life. Turn on settings on your phone, navigate to the date and time. Lifewire sets the forward date on your device temporarily, potentially affecting other apps and games. Please note that when using this scam Open Candy Crush and make sure you have five free lives. Turn off candy crush without playing. Turn your time settings back on and back to normal. Open Candy Crush again and you still have five free lives. Life
